12/14: Holiday Concert 6:30 pm at Cox.

Falcon Classic Notes:

Thoughts for next year: Need more advertising, help before event, try to get sponsors, hold drawing for local business gift certificates, ask Norfolk State or ODU marching band to come exhibition. Chick Fil A warmer bags will fit a pizza box – can we ask them for a few empty bags to use for the day?

Craft Bazaar Nov. 17

55 Vendors confirmed.

Bake Sale Set up: Merle Younkin

Concessions: Terri Beale

Advertising on Next Door and Facebook has been done. Mary will send flyer to put on website and ask Gina to do sign up genius.

Breakfast provided for vendors.

Grill Master: Scott Campbell. Mary will ask administration if we can choose the grill in the teacher's lounge.

Date for Spring: April 27 or May 4. Mary to ask vendors their preference and request dates from admin.

Spring Yard Sale: Scott Campbell will organize. Date to be either April 27 or May 4. Scott to work with Mary to request date from admin.

Props Cleanup: Nov. 17; 10 am - 12

Treasurer Update:

Profits from Falcon Classic: $3,397.90

Band Booster Meeting: 11/5/18

Fundraising: We need to keep fundraising. Between the Holiday Parades on Dec. 1, we will do Tag Day again. Boosters will provide a pasta meal. Suggestion made to do a QR code for website donations and/or take Square to parades, etc. During the holiday season, small groups of students may also perform around town for donations.

Holiday Concert: 12/14, 6:30 pm at Cox. Will need to decorate on Dec. 13th.

The meeting ended at 8:15 pm.
